This book is broken down into thirteen weeks of daily devotions. Each day has a prayer and select Bible verses. The prayers are designed to make the reader think about how to incorporate the verses in their daily life. To help with the thought process, there is a theme that runs through the week. The end of each section there is a reflection page. This page is intended to help you meditate on what you have read with room to write your own thoughts and prayers. Here are some quotes from some of the readers: "In February of 2018 my son went to the ER of our hospital and was sent home. He went back the next day in worse condition. Twenty-four hours later he was sent home with no diagnosis so we went to Rochester MN. Another twenty-four hours and we still had no reason for his condition but we were sent home once again. This situation continued for the next two months before we were told he has severe anxiety. I went to this book many times for comfort and peace of mind. I thank you, Nancy, for putting together these prayers." -Val B. from Iowa "Very inspiring just what I needed at the right time." -Laury D. from Iowa "I love having the e-book on my computer. There are times I am stressed out at work. I open it up and read my favorite sections. There are a few lines that touched me and made my day better." -Jessica P. from Nebraska "Great devotional! It is right where you are right when you need it!" -Aaron S. from Iowa
